

NJ COUNCIL FOR THE HUMANITIES

28 WEST STATE STREET, SIXTH FLOOR

TRENTON, NJ 08608

609.695.4838

NJCH.ORG

MISSION AND VISION

At the New Jersey Council for the Humanities, we harness the power of the humanities to strengthen our pluralistic society.

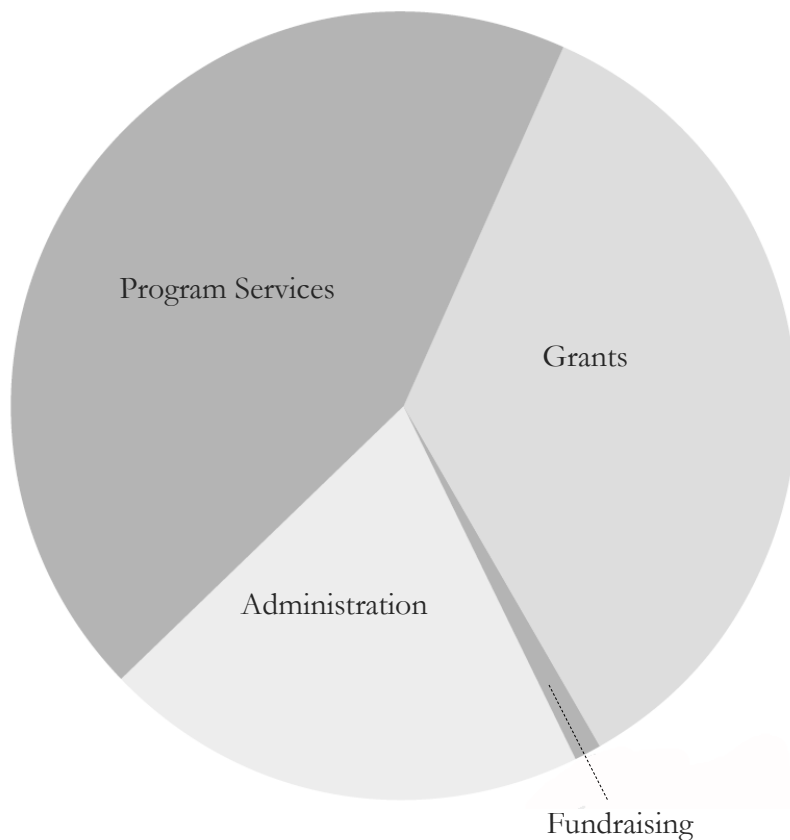

Our vision is a New Jersey that delights in diversity, appreciates that there are no easy answers, and finds joy and understanding in the humanities.

HOW DO WE WORK?

By enabling public programs and humanities experiences that deepen our understanding of ourselves and our world.

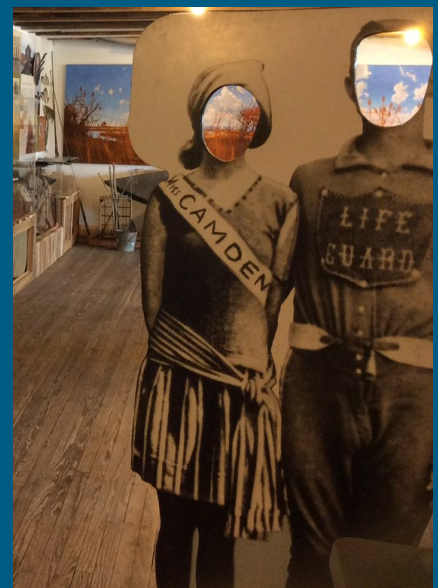

NJCH is a grantmaker, program provider, partner, convener, and innovator. We work with statewide and community organizations to bring dynamic programming to the local level.

FY15 FUNCTIONAL EXPENSES

Untitled (Swedesboro)
2015, Paper collage, Casey Ruble

Everything that Rises, an exhibition and public program series at the Visual Arts Center of New Jersey, utilized the artwork of Casey Ruble to generate dialogue on race relations in the U.S. The artist creates contemporary images of local sites with historical connections to the Underground Railroad and the Civil Rights Movement. The project received support from a NJCH Major Grant.

Play on the Baysore, an exhibition and public program series at the Bayshore Center at Bivalve explored how work and play are closely intertwined with each other in New Jersey's Delaware Bayshore. The project received support from a NJCH Major Grant.

Impact Report for the Honorable Albio Sires

Congressional District 8

NJCH At-A-Glance

	2016*	2014-2016*
Council Investment	$69,497	$207,251
Partner Contributions	$392,444	$805,427
Events	14	40
Audience	16,872	93,587
Communities	4	7

* These figures represent all areas of Newark

“ The NJ Council for the Humanities empowers us, as social justice filmmakers, to make the humanities accessible to diverse and underrepresented audiences. By supporting our films, curricula, and public programs, NJCH promotes community engagement in critical dialogue and action about our history, present, and future. ”

Marylou Tibaldo-Bongiorno
Filmmaker, Bongiorno Productions
NJCH Grant Recipient

Where We Are

Statewide Programming

Each marker was the site of at least one NJCH-funded event.

District 8 Program Partners

Hudson County Community College • Jersey City Theater Center • Bongiorno Productions • Elizabeth Free Public Library • Essex County Parks Foundation • Gallery Aferro • Hoboken Historical Museum • Newark Museum Association • Newark Public Library • Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences • Clement A Price Institute on Ethnicity, Culture, and the Modern Experience, Rutgers University-Newark

*Where We Are data represents three years of programs