

2019 GRANT WORKSHOPS

Grant workshops will take place on the third Thursday of every other month from 10:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Locations will rotate around the state.

January 17 | North Jersey

ACTION GRANTS

Action Grants support the implementation, continuation, and expansion of projects. Whether you are ready to do something new or sticking with a successful model, this workshop will get you ready to submit a competitive proposal for your program.

March 21 | Central Jersey

ARTS & HUMANITIES

This workshop will help you understand the similarities and differences between the arts and the humanities and explore effective partnerships that have led to rich and nuanced programs for both types of organizations.

May 16 | South Jersey

INCUBATION GRANTS

Whether you are planning a new program or reimagining an existing one, Incubation Grants help you plan and develop programs. This workshop will help you understand the ins and outs of an Incubation Grant application...including why knowing exactly what you want to do is not going to benefit your proposal.

July 18 | North Jersey

BUILDING PROGRAMS WITH AND FOR YOUR AUDIENCE

The best programs are built with the needs and interests of your audience in mind. Learn about strategies for involving your community at every stage of your project, from development to implementation.

September 19 | Central Jersey

EFFECTIVE PROGRAM EVALUATION

How do you know if a program is successful? This workshop will help you consider how to build evaluation into your programs, from setting the program goals and evaluation metrics to gathering data and analyzing what it means.

November 21 | South Jersey

PLANNING FOR 2020: APPLYING FOR A NJCH GRANT

Grant applications are always competitive, and NJCH is no exception. This workshop will help you learn more about the mission of NJCH and public humanities programming. An overview of the Incubation and Action Grant program will also be provided.
