

2020 NJCH WORKSHOPS

CREATING AN OUTSTANDING PROPOSAL

The strongest grant proposals use both their narrative and their budget to tell a compelling story. Learn how to craft a competitive grant proposal in this blended coaching session and writing workshop. Ideal for anyone in the process of applying for an NJCH grant, but open to anyone who wants to learn how to write an effective grant proposal.

FEBRUARY 20 — NORTH JERSEY

FEBRUARY 25 — SOUTH JERSEY

SEPTEMBER 17 — SOUTH JERSEY

SEPTEMBER 22 — NORTH JERSEY

CONNECTING WITH YOUR AUDIENCE

Ready to share information about your public humanities project with current and potential audiences? Determining the best way(s) to share information can be a challenge. We'll explore how to make decisions about target audiences, outreach best practices, and more.

APRIL 16 — NORTH JERSEY

APRIL 21 — SOUTH JERSEY

HUMANITIES PROGRAM MODELS

The humanities help us explore the human experience...but how? Learn about models for great humanities programs - from exhibitions to discussion programs to community collaborations - from NJCH program staff and successful grantees.

MAY 19 — SOUTH JERSEY

NOVEMBER 19 — NORTH JERSEY

SETTING GOALS AND TRACKING PROGRESS

Effective evaluation comes down to clearly identifying your program's goals from the beginning and designing effective ways to track your progress towards achieving them. Learn techniques for doing both at this workshop.

JUNE 18 — CENTRAL JERSEY

APPLYING FOR A NJCH GRANT

Learn about NJCH's grant program and what makes a competitive proposal at this informational workshop. Come with a program idea and you'll leave with the start of a proposal!

AUGUST 20 — CENTRAL JERSEY

INTERESTED IN BRINGING A NJCH WORKSHOP TO YOUR COMMUNITY?

Contact us for more information about hosting. Minimum of 10 participants required.

For more information and registration, please visit:

NEW JERSEY COUNCIL FOR THE HUMANITIES
28 WEST STATE STREET / SUITE 6 / TRENTON, NJ 08608
609.695.4838 / INFO@NJHUMANITIES.ORG

NJHUMANITIES.ORG