Narrative

Project Name*

The name of the project is used throughout the administration of the request. Please keep the name short and simple; it will only be used internally to identify your project.

Character Limit: 100

Mission and Audience*

What is your organization's mission and/or vision? Briefly describe your program areas or services offered and the audience(s) who participate, including geographic areas or particular communities served.

Character Limit: 1500

Organizational Structure*

How many people are employed by or involved in your organization? What is the staff or volunteer set-up? Who does the work that your organization does?

Character Limit: 1500

Budget*

What is your organization's operating budget?

Character Limit: 100

Public Engagement*

What does your organization's current engagement with the public look like? Who normally attends your events or interacts with your organization? How about in the virtual space (website, social media, digital programs)? If you have numbers that help tell this story, please include them.

Character Limit: 1500

History Interest*

Why are you interested in incorporating history into your work? Have you done any history work in the past? How do you imagine this program will benefit your organization?

Character Limit: 5000

Topics and Community*

Tell us about the people, places, and/or time period(s) that you are interested in exploring through Community History. Why are they of interest to you? What connections does your organization have to that history? Can you identify other community members or organizations that would be potential partners in your work? Do you have any existing relationships with those prospective partners?

Character Limit: 5000

Project Team*

Tell us about the participants you plan to send to Community History. What's their connection to the organization and the community? What do they bring to your team? If you do not yet know which individuals will participate, that is okay. Give us your ideas or tell us what you're thinking about.
